"Thought I'd take a moment, send a little note
To put your minds at ease and to let you know I JUST ARRIVED IN HEAVEN..."

In memory of Leo Coyour (Wes' Dad)

July 2, 1931 – March 14, 2015

Someone would ask, "How are you doing Leo?" Dad's reply, "If I was any better, I'd be in Heaven." And NOW HE IS!

He lived to be 83 years old, but we decided Dad was more like 166 because he managed to squeeze two lifetimes into one . . .
such a "go-getter" and everyone agreed, (even the grandkids) no one could keep up with Papa Leo.

Known as the Roadie, the Rowdy, the Rev, and the Whistler, Dad inspired everyone he met – always ready to help, play and PRAY. After every concert, there is always someone with a story and a desire for prayer. Dad's love for people was completely unconditional and non-judgmental. He wanted everyone to meet Jesus, the answer to life here and for eternity. That's what Dad lived for and that's the mission of Remember the Love of the Family.

It thrilled Dad to be with us singing and sharing; we will miss his playful spirit, especially when we're with the kids. We have a feeling he is persistently asking God to keep opening up new opportunities for us. Now, more than ever, we want to keep pressing on and be faithful in this mission we've been given.

Tax-deductible memorials given to Remember the Love of the Family, a non profit 501(c)3, are being specifically used to target the current media-driven generation with more productions such as the video, "I'm Home".

Thankful for you and the hope of Heaven,

Wes & Dawn

P.S. Mom is doing well; she's ready and excited to be on the road again playing the "keys" with us.

Thought I'd take a moment, send a little note
To put your minds at ease and to let you know I just arrived in Heaven, I'm at a loss for words It's way, way beyond anything you have ever heard

I'm livin' in a mansion down on golden street
It's right on the beach of the crystal sea
The weather's always perfect and everyone's my friend
There's no fear or sickness, just joy that never ends

So be strong, keep holdin' on When your faith is weak, stop and think of me

I'm standin' in the sunshine of my Savior Sittin' at the feet of my God and maker Lookin' into His loving eyes
No words on Earth could describe I'm dancin' with angels, what a joy Singin' with the saints such a beautiful noise
I'm here in the arms of my heavenly Father
So if you wondered, don't you bother I'm safe at home with Jesus, I'm home
